

Dolphin Program 1/Apr./2019~31/Mar./2020

| Program                                                                                                           | START TIME              | Required time | term                             | FEE (excluding tax)PER PERSON                         | content                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------|---------------|----------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Dolphin Royal Swim     | 9:3012:30           | 70 minutes    | 1/Apr.-30/Jun.1/Sep.-31/Mar. | ¥16,000                                                   | After the orientation, you can play and swim with the dolphin while holding on to the dorsal fin just like the trainers usually do. The activities can be changed according to the condition of the dolphin at the time. Please prepare a swimsuit. Participating requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◎Height: 125cm or more</li> <li>◎Able to swim in the deep sea</li> </ul>                                                             |
| Dolphin Swim           | 10:0013:0014:00 | 50 minutes    | 1/Jul.-31/Aug.                   | ¥14,000                                                   | After the orientation, you can play and swim with the dolphin while holding on to the dorsal fin just like the trainers usually do. The activities will be changed according to the condition of the dolphin at the time. Please prepare a swimsuit. (This program is short version of the Dolphin Royal Swim). Participating requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◎Height: 125cm or more</li> <li>◎Able to swim in the deep sea</li> </ul> |
| Dolphin Encounter     | 11:0014:0015:00 | 50 minutes    | full year                        | ¥7,000Summer Fee1/Jul.-30/Aug.¥8,000 | After listening to a lecture on dolphins, you can touch and play games with the dolphins in shallow water.(The depth is below knee-high of an adult) Open to all ages, you will spend fun-filled time with the dolphins. Please prepare a swimsuit. Participating requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◎Children less than 6-year-old must have a paid participating adult(one for one). An adult and a child are charged for.</li> </ul>   |
| Dolphin Walking Tour | 9:3011:3015:30  | 20 minutes    | full year                        | Ages 4 and over¥1,200Ages 3 or underFree      | After a short time lecture of the dolphins, you can go up close and watch our dolphins while they swim and play freely in the water. Participating requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◎Children less than 6-year-old must have a paid participating adult(one for one). An adult and a child are charged for.</li> </ul>                                                                                                                  |

Dolphin Program 1/Apr./2019~31/Mar./2020

| Program                                                                                                     | START TIME             | Required time | term           | FEE (excluding tax)PER PERSON                         | content                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------|---------------|----------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Mogu Mogu Picnic | 9:0012:0016:00 | 40 minutes    | full year      | ¥3,000Summer Fee1/Jul.-31/Aug.¥4,000 | This program features the experience of feeding a variety of marine and land-based animals, such as tortoises, sea turtles and dolphins. It's very interesting to see how different animal species eat.Participating requirements©Children less than 6-year-old must have a paid participating adult(one for one). An adult and a child are charged for. |
| Smile Dolphin   | 11:0015:00         | 30 minutes    | 1/Oct.-28/Feb. | ¥5,000                                                    | You can touch and play games with dolphins from on top of the floating stage. Dolphin will kiss your hand.Participating requirements©Children less than 6-year-old must have a paid participating adult(one for one). An adult and a child are charged for.                                                                                              |